

Vladivostok as the Capital of the 2012 APEC Summit

Location: Nadezhda Training Sailer of G.I. Nevelskoy Maritime State University, deco-rated in the style of the Russian pavilion at the Expo 2010.

Nadezhda Training Sailer moored at:

Passenger Terminal in the center of Shanghai.

G.I. Nevelskoy Maritime State University is one of the oldest maritime educational institutions at the Russian Far East. Its graduates become maritime professionals in the whole spectrum of relevant fields. Its Nadezhda Training Sailer is intended to train navy cadets. In 2003 and 2004, Nadezhda Frigate was the first in the 21st century to sail round the world. The boat has won numerous international regattas and received a lot of other awards.

The exposition at Nadezhda is intended to present Russia as a friendly maritime power and a reliable partner across Asia-Pacific.

Other expositions at Nadezhda training sailer:

Photo Expositions:

1. Vladivostok is the capital of APEC Russia 2012 summit.
2. Posters and photos showing the present of Vladivostok and construction projects under way for the APEC Russia 2012 summit.
3. Achievements and investment projects of the Primorsky Krai.
4. The Exposition of SovKomFlot OAO, the biggest maritime transport company in Russia.
5. Maritime Education in Russia.
6. Maritime State University named after admiral G.I. Nevelskoi.

Presentations:

1. Vladivostok is the Russian outpost in the Pacific and the capital of the APEC Russia 2012 summit. Video.
2. Vladivostok Pictured by Local Artists. Video.
3. Presentation of the Pacific cruise of Nadezhda training boat in 2011 and 2012, dedicated to the APEC Vladivostok 2012.

EXPO 2010 related events at Nadezhda training sailer

1. Free Entrance

Dates: September 26, 29, 30, 2010

Organizing Committee:

Ministry of Transport of the Russian Federation
 The Russian Federation Agency of Maritime and River Transport
 Ministry of Trade and Industry of the Russian Federation
 All-Russia Exhibition Center
 Chamber of Commerce and Industry of the Russian Federation
 SovKomFlot Group
 Primorsky Krai Administration
 Vladivostok City Municipalities
 Maritime State University named after admiral G.I. Nevelskoi
 Russkiy Mir Foundation

Media Support: RIA Novosti

Visitors are invited to see: excursions, expositions, photos, videos, slides. On the upper deck, performances by a variety band of G.I. Nevelskoy Maritime State University.

2. Youth Program of the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation Summit

Date: September 27, 2010

Agenda: International Youth Intellectual Game, with students and cadets of G.I. Nevelskoy Maritime State University. World Conference on Climate Changes, Alternative Energy Solutions, Safe Navigation, and Further Development of Maritime Education in Asia-Pacific. Working language: English.

3. Day of Russia at Expo 2010

Date: September 28, 2010

Agenda: The visit of the Russian Federation official delegation to Nadezhda training Sailer. Tour around the exposition. Presentation of the Pacific Cruise of Nadezhda training Sailer in 2011 and 2012, dedicated to the APEC Vladivostok 2012 summit.

4. The Day of the People's Republic of China

Date: October 01, 2010

Agenda: The Russian delegation congratulates the Shanghai City representatives. People of Shanghai and other guests visit expositions at the Nadezhda training Sailer. Performances by the Chinese party.